II. MISSION STATEMENT

I have come to realize that there is no right way and there seems to be three kinds of connoisseurs. This is the individual who will tell you if you don't breathe in with the first roll around your tongue you have not truly experienced. As for me, I'm a training wheels aficionado.

The key factor in determining the validity of someone's opinion boils down to the validity of any opinion. Is there a constant, non-variable element that allows the system to be consistent? What is consistent in the first and third opinion?

For the purposes of accepting someone's opinion prior to actually forming your own, be sure to figure out which category the "source" of the opinion falls into, compare that to which category you fall into, and find the source who truly connects.

Some of the facts may have become muddled, but others emerged crystal clear. And just like double distillation, the details may not have shown themselves as originally intended, but the outcome was either fairly accurate or right on target.

It should be of no surprise that my first job at the tender age of 16 was at the concession stand of a movie theatre.

A few years later, it was a fine dining establishment. During college, it was a pizza place. In my mid-twenties, I was blessed with the opportunity to work for a 5-room banquet facility that served over 1000 people per shift. It was my laser-focused intention to clean up an abhorrent mess and create a successful operation that I was introduced to the owner of a local catering company.

Don't be a creature of habit.

My watch alarm again failed to chime. I couldn't understand why since I had just had the battery changed shortly before the trip. Reaching the lobby, I suddenly remembered that I also had an appointment later tonight.

A huge eighteen-wheeler had arrived at the same time, and expertly backed through the open front gates. Carefully, the driver continued in reverse to the loading dock. The delivery was from a local glass company.

I began to feel insulted, but not for me.

Jesus And Tequila

Book of Kristen 26: 1-75

Jesus Drinks Near the BBQ Pit

- ¹ And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished his first tequila, he said unto his drinking buddies,
- ² You guys know that after two days is the feast of Jan Brewer's minions, and thus I will be betrayed and then deported.
- ³ Then assembled together the awesome band the Minutemen, and the drinking buddies of Jesus, who was about to be deported, and they went unto the palace of Don Julio, who was called a Great Maker and Seller of Tequila,
- ⁴ They consulted that they would take Jesus, and get him drunk one last time.
- ⁵ But some said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the gringos, and they will collect him more easily. But, said one of the drinking buddies, They all but have him already, the paperwork is done. So they continued to Don Julio's.
- ⁶ Now when Jesus was in Don Julio's in Phoenix, in Arizona, in the House of Governor Jan Brewer,
- ⁷ There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious Don Julio Tequila Blanco, and poured it down his throat, as he sat.
- ⁸ And when his drinking buddies saw it, they cried out, saying, To what purpose is this waste of good tequila? You pour so fast half of it dribbles down his face!
- ⁹ For this tequila costs much, and should be savored by all of us poor sons of bitches, but especially Jesus, because he is about to be deported.
- ¹⁰ Jesus understood, and said unto them, Why trouble you guys the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.
- ¹¹ For you guys have each other and tequila and if you be lucky might stay here always; but me you guys have not always, for I am deported.
- ¹² For in that she hath poured this tequila on my face and my good shirt, she did it for my last supper.
- ¹³ Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this kind of drinking party should take place in the whole of border states with reactionary immigration policies, there shall also be this, and what this woman hath done might be celebrated upon all our brethren and made for a memorial of them.
- ¹⁴ Then one of the twelve, called Judas Martinez, who had a green card, went unto the INS,
- ¹⁵ And said unto them, What will you guys give me, if deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty bottles of Don Julio Silver.

¹⁶ And from that time he sought opportunity to betray Jesus.

¹⁸ And he said, Go into the state of Texas and find Lanny Jordan Jackson, and say unto him, Jesus saith, My time is at hand; I would like to drink tequila one last time at thy house with my drinking buddies.

¹⁹ And the drinking buddies did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the party at Lanny Jordan Jackson's house in Texas and booked the Minutemen to play revolutionary punk rock for the people.

²⁰ Now when the evening was come, he sat down with the drinking buddies and drank tequila while the Minutemen opened with "Don't Look Now," a song written in honor of the small works of the people, the workers, who keep all of society in shoes and the like.

²¹ And they did drink and rock out. During a set break, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

²² The band and the drinking buddies all were exceedingly sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, is it I?

²³ And he answered and said, He that reacheth his hand at the same time as me toward a salt-rimmed glass, the same shall betray me.

²⁴ The Son of A Man Born on Foreign Soil goeth as the law is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of A Man Born on Foreign Soil is betrayed you guys! It had been good for that man if he had not been born, cuz he will end up with no drinking buddies.

²⁵ Then Judas Martinez, who had his green card, answered and said, Jesus, you are not talking about me are you? He said unto him, Thou hast said. But I will still let you drink the tequila for now, as I feel sorrow for thee, who has a green card, who is so desperate for his own tequila, that he sell out his friends.

²⁷ And he took the bottle, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink you guys all of it;

²⁸ For this is my blood of 100% tequila, which is drank in honor of the many who have been deported before me.

²⁹ But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of any beer or the fruit of the vine,

I will make sure that tequila is the new drink, which I will always have, with you in mind, when I return to my Father's kingdom of a small dilapidated house in the boondocks of Mexico.

- ³⁰ And when the Minutemen began to play again, they began with the song "Toadies" while everyone stared with something between rage and depressed disappointment at Judas Martinez, who had a green card. For the selling out drinking buddies to the gringo INS had been an unthinkable offence heretofore among their group.
- ³¹ Then saith Jesus unto them, All you guys shall be offended because of me this night: for it is possible I am so drunk I will attempt to smite the cops, and the whole of us shall be scattered abroad to avoid arrest and deportation.
- ³² But if they do collect and deport me, after I am taken away, I will just wait awhile and sneak back here. For their policy is ridiculous, No man can keep the people of the world from their desires.
- ³³ Paolo, one of the drinking buddies, answered and said unto him, Though the cops and the INS shall be offended because of thee, us guys will never be offended that you fight off the man. After all, they try to ruin thee.
- ³⁴ Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice to avoid arrest and deportation.
- ³⁵ Paolo said unto him, You're just being paranoid because you are drunk. I will not deny thee. Likewise also said all the drinking buddies, Jesus you always get like this when you're drunk.
- ³⁶ Then cometh the group of drinking buddies unto a place in the back yard garden called Lanny's Dad's BBQ Pit, and saith unto the drinking buddies, Sit you guys here, while I go and get more tequila.
- ³⁷ And he took with him Paolo and Lanny, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy with drunken despair.
- ³⁸ Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: stand and sway you guys here, and hold me, I think I can't walk anymore.
- ³⁹ And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and screamed, saying, O God, if it be possible, let this empty bottle be full of tequila so I don't have to walk any further.
- ⁴⁰ And he cometh unto the two drinking buddies, and findeth them passed out in the gutter, and saith unto them, What, could you guys not watch out for me for two seconds?
- ⁴¹ Watch that you guys enter not into deportation this night: the INS and its toadies indeed are coming, and your drunken flesh is weak.
- ⁴² He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this bottle pass away from me empty, thy will be done, but please don't.

⁴³ And he came and found them asleep again: for the drinking buddies were heavy with tequila and sorrow.

⁴⁴ And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time for miracle tequila, saying the same words.

⁴⁵ Then cometh he to his drinking buddies, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of A Man Born on Foreign Soil is betrayed into the hands of the INS because Judas Martinez, who has his green card, told the minions of Jan Brewer we were in Texas at Lanny's house drinking tequila.

⁴⁶ Rise, let us be going: behold, the officers are at hand because he doth betray me.

⁴⁷ And while he spake, lo, Judas Martinez, who had his green card, came, and with him a great multitude of officers from the INS and local police.

⁴⁸ Now he that had his green card and betrayed Jesus gave them a sign, saying, him who I approach and kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

⁴⁹ And forthwith he came to Jesus, and kissed him.

⁵⁰ And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou coming to me with kisses? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

⁵¹ And, behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his tequila bottle, and struck a servant of the INS, and smote off his ear.

⁵² Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy broken bottle into his face: for all they that take the sharp edge of broken tequila bottles in the face shall have a nasty burning cut in the morning.

⁵³ And Jesus cried out, Thinkest thou that I cannot now kick your asses, with my more than twelve legions of drunken angels?

⁵⁴ But the minions replied, How then shall the racist laws be fulfilled, unless thus it must be?

⁵⁵ In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are you guys come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you as a good member of this community, I worked hard here, and you guys benefited.

⁵⁶ But all this was done, said the Officers of the INS, that the reactionary feelings of stupid gringos might be fulfilled through the slow process of law-making, and mostly just to ensure re-election of Governor Jan Brewer. They then came at him with handcuffs. And all the drinking buddies, horrified by the rational irrationality of the law, freaked out, forsook him, and fled.

⁵⁷ And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to some secret cell of the INS, where other cops and unfortunate workers of color were assembled.

⁵⁸ But Paolo followed him afar off unto the INS secret cell, and went in, and sat with the cops, to see the end.

⁵⁹ Now the officials of various sorts, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, saying he was a layabout drunk, and determined to put him out;

⁶⁰ Jesus found none to defend him and said, you guys, though many false witnesses came, you guys found nothing real against me. At the last came two false witnesses, ⁶¹ And said, This fellow said, I am able to kick the asses of cops, and tried to fight off the INS with the sharp edges of broken bottles.

⁶² And Governor Jan Brewer arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witnesses have against thee?

⁶³ But Jesus held his peace. And then Jan Brewer answered and said unto him, I adjure thee by the greatest living nation ever to exist on earth, that thou tell us whether thou be the Son of a Foreign Born Man.

⁶⁴ Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall you guys see the Son of a Mexican sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

⁶⁵ Then one of the minions of Jan Brewer rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now you guys have heard his blasphemy.

⁶⁶ What think you guys? They answered and said, He is guilty of not being American.

⁶⁷ Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands, ⁶⁸ Saying, Prophecy unto us, thou immigrant, Who is he that raised thee?

⁶⁹ Now Paolo sat in the back row: and a gardener came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus.

⁷⁰ But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

⁷¹ And when he was gone out into the porch, a maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus.

⁷² And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

⁷³ And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Paolo, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy Spanish accent betrayeth thee.

⁷⁴ Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

⁷⁵ And Paolo remembered the words of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly. But eventually, driven by all his guilt, Paolo went on to become an Immigrant Rights Activist, And when Jesus came back to Arizona again three months later, he joined the movement too.

Kim Rosenfield, TEQUILA!

TEQUILA!

Jesus walks into a bar and asks the bartender “If I show you a really good trick, will you give me a free drink? The bartender considers it, then agrees. Jesus reaches into his pocket and pulls out a tiny rat. He reaches into his other pocket and pulls out a tiny piano. The rat stretches, cracks his knuckles, and proceeds to play the blues.

After Jesus finishes his drink, he asks the bartender “If I show you an even better trick, will you give me free drinks for the rest of the evening?” The bartender agrees, thinking no trick could possibly be better than the first. Jesus reaches into his pocket and pulls out a tiny rat. He reaches into his other pocket and pulls out a tiny piano. The rat stretches, cracks his knuckles, and proceeds to play the blues. Jesus reaches into another pocket and pulls out a small bullfrog, who begins to sing along with the rat’s music.

While Jesus is enjoying his beverages, a stranger confronts him and offers him $100,000.00 for the bullfrog. “Sorry,” Jesus replies “He’s not for sale.” The stranger then increases the offer to $250,000.00 cash up front. “No”, Jesus insists, “He’s not for sale.” The stranger again increases the offer, this time to $500,000.00 cash. Jesus finally agrees and turns the frog over to the stranger in exchange for the cash.

“Are you insane?” The bartender demands. “That frog could have been worth millions to you and you let him go for a mere “$500,000.00?!” “Don’t worry” says Jesus calmly, “the frog was really nothing special. You see, the rat’s really a ventriloquist.”

Jesus is in a bar and falling off his stool every couple of minutes. He is obviously drunk. The bartender says to another man at the bar “Why don’t you be a Good Samaritan and take him home now?”

The man takes Jesus out the door and to his car and Jesus stumbles at least ten times. They drive along and Jesus points out his house to the man. He stops the car and Jesus stumbles up the steps to his house with the man.

Drunk Jesus’ wife, Mary, greets them at the door and says: ”Why thank you for bringing him home for me, but where’s his wheelchair?”

A new guy in town, Jesus, walks into a bar and reads a sign that hangs over the bar.

FREE BEER FOR THE PERSON WHO CAN PASS OUR TEST!

So Jesus asks the bartender what the test is. The Bartender replies “Well, first you have to drink that whole gallon of pepper tequila, the whole thing at once and you can’t make a face while doing it. Second, there’s a ‘gator out back with a sore tooth...you have to remove it with your bare hands. Third, there’s a woman upstairs who’s never had an orgasm. You gotta make things right for her.”

Jesus says, “Well, as much as I would love free beer, I won’t do it. You have to be nuts to drink a gallon of pepper tequila and then get crazier from there.” Well, as time goes on, Jesus drinks a few and asks, “wherez zat teeeqeelah?”

He grabs the gallon of tequila with both hands and downs it with a big slurp and tears streaming down his face. Next, he staggers out back and soon all the people inside hear the most frightening roaring and thumping, then silence.

Jesus staggers back into the bar, his shirt ripped and big scratches all over his body. “Now” he says “Where’s that woman with the sore tooth?”

Jesus, a Doberman, and a Bulldog are in a bar having a drink when a great-looking female Collie comes up to them and says: “Whoever can say liver and cheese in a sentence can have me.”

So the Doberman says: “I love liver and cheese.” The Collie replies, “That’s not good enough.”

The Bulldog says: “I hate liver and cheese.” The Collie says, “That’s not creative enough.”

Finally, Jesus says, “Liver alone...cheese mine.”

Jesus walks into a bar and asks, “Where’s the bar tender?”

Jesus walks into a bar and the bartender says, “Hey, we have a drink named after you!” and Jesus says, “You have a drink named Harold?”

A serious drunk, Jesus, walks into a bar and after staring for some time at the only woman seated at the bar, walks over to her and kisses her. She jumps up and slaps him silly. He immediately apologizes and explains, “I’m sorry, I thought you were my wife. You look exactly like her.”

“Why you worthless, insufferable, wretched, no good drunk!” She screams.

“Funny,” Jesus mutters, “you even sound exactly like her.”

Jesus walks into a bar in Dublin, orders three pints of Guinness, and sits in the back of the room, drinking a sip out of each one in turn. When he finishes them, he comes back to the bar and orders three more. The bartender tells him “You know, a pint goes flat after I draw it; it would taste better if you bought one at a time.” Jesus replies, “Well, you see, I have two brothers. One is in America, the other is in Australia, and I'm here in Dublin. When we all left home, we promised that we'd drink this way to remember the days when we drank together." The bartender admits that this is a nice custom, and leaves it there.

Jesus becomes a regular in the bar, and always drinks the same way: ordering three pints and drinking them in turn. One day, he comes in and orders two pints. All the other regulars notice and fall silent. When he comes back to the bar for the second round, the bartender says, "I don't mean to intrude on your grief, but I wanted to offer my condolences on your great loss." Jesus looks confused for a moment, then light dawns in his eyes and he laughs. "Oh, no," he says, "Everyone's fine. I've just quit drinking."

Two vampires and Jesus walk into a bar and sit down. The waitress comes over and asks the first vampire what he would like. The first vampire responds, "I would like some blood."

The waitress turns to the second vampire and asks what he would like. The second vampire responds, "I would like some blood."

The waitress then turns to Jesus and asks what he would like. Jesus responds, "I would like some plasma."

The waitress looks up and says, "Okay, let me see if I got this order right. You want two bloods and a blood lite?"

Jesus walks into a bar and sits down on a stool and the bartender says "Can I help you?"

Jesus says, "quack quack quack, got any raisins?"

The bartender says, "NO! This is a bar and we don't sell raisins!"

Jesus walks out and then he comes back the very next day and sits in the very same stool.

The bartender walks over and asks him if he could help him. Jesus says, "quack, quack, quack, got any raisins?"

The bartender says, "NO! This is a bar and we don't sell raisins!"

Jesus comes back the very next day and sits in the very same stool once again! He yells at the bartender, “quack, quack, quack, got any raisins?”

The bartender says “NO! And if you come back here again I’m gonna nail your webbed feet to the ground and you’re gonna die there!” Jesus says “okay” and leaves.

The next day comes and sure enough Jesus comes back except he only peeps his head inside the door. He says, “quack, quack, quack, got any nails?” The bartender replies, “NO!!!

Jesus says, “Good, then you got any raisins?”

Jesus walks into a bar and a little man is sitting next to him. The little man asks if he has a family and how old he is. Jesus tells him he’s 29 and that he has a wife.

The little man says, “I am a Leprechaun, and if you let me fuck you in the ass, I’ll grant you three wishes.”

So they go to the bathroom and the Leprechaun fucks Jesus in the ass.

When almost finished, the Leprechaun says, “You did say you have a family, right?”

Jesus replies, “Yes, I’m 29 and I have a wife.”

The Leprechaun says, “Well aren’t you a little bit old to be believing in Leprechauns?”

Jesus walks into a dimly lit bar and the bartender asks him “Why is the front of your shirt all bloody?”

Jesus answers in a slurred voice “My wife caught me with another woman and cut off my penis.”

“Oh, come on” replies the bartender.

Jesus then says “If you don’t believe me, I’ll show you.”

He proceeds to rifle through his suitcase and pulls out this long thin thing and lays it on the bar.

The bartender leans down and looks closely and says “Why, this is just a cigar.”

Jesus looks puzzled and says “I have it here somewhere” and proceeds to fumble through his other pockets and comes up with another long thin thing that he places on the bar and says “See that!”

The bartender again inspects it closely and says, “You asshole, it’s just another cigar!”

Now Jesus staggers backward and steadies himself, leaning on the bar, and with awareness in his shaky voice says, “Son of a bitch, I must’ve smoked it!”

Jesus walks into a pub and sees a sign hanging over the bar which reads:

Cheese Sandwich: $1.50

Chicken Sandwich: $2.50

Hand Job: $5.00

Checking in his wallet for the necessary payment, he walks up to the bar and beckons to one of the three exceptionally attractive brunettes serving drinks to an eager-looking group of young men.

“Yes?” She inquires, with a knowing smile, “Can I help you?”

“I was wondering,” whispers Jesus, “are you the one who gives the hand jobs?”

“Yes” she purrs, “I am.”

Jesus replies “Well wash your fucking hands, I want a cheese sandwich!”

Jesus walks into a bar and sits next to a drunk and begins poking him in the shoulder.

The drunk just ignores him.

After a while, the drunk turns to Jesus and begins looking him up and down.

He notices that Jesus has no genitalia.

He then asks “You have no genitalia, how do you have sex?”

Jesus, still poking him in the arm, just smiles!

Jesus walks into a bar.

He asks for a shot of tequila. The bartender says “Sorry, we don’t serve Jesuses.” So Jesus leaves.

The next day, Jesus walks back into the bar. He asks for a shot of tequila. The bartender replies “Sorry, we do not serve Jesuses. Please go away.”

The following day Jesus stands outside the bar debating whether to go in or not. He ties himself in a knot and frays the bottom.

He goes in and asks for a shot of tequila. The bartender replies “Hey, aren’t you that same Jesus that’s been coming in here all the time?”

Jesus replies, “No, I’m a freyed knot.”

Why did Jesus push his wife off a cliff?

Andy Sterling, Have You Heard?

On the evening of Thursday January 26, 2012, I joined two friends for a night of drinks and music at one of their homes in Manhattan. Feeling intrepid after consuming two J&B Rare Blends and three Pilsner Urquells, I opened my host's computer and attempted to learn the guitar solos to the classic ZZ Top song "Jesus Just Left Chicago" from the band's 1973 album, Tres Hombres. Using a ZOOM H2 Digital Audio Recorder, I was able to record the proceedings, and my response to this month's task is to share this recording with you. Hope you find this music excelente.

J. Gordon Faylor, Vodka and Ayahuasca by Gangrene

Vodka and Ayahuasca by Gangrene

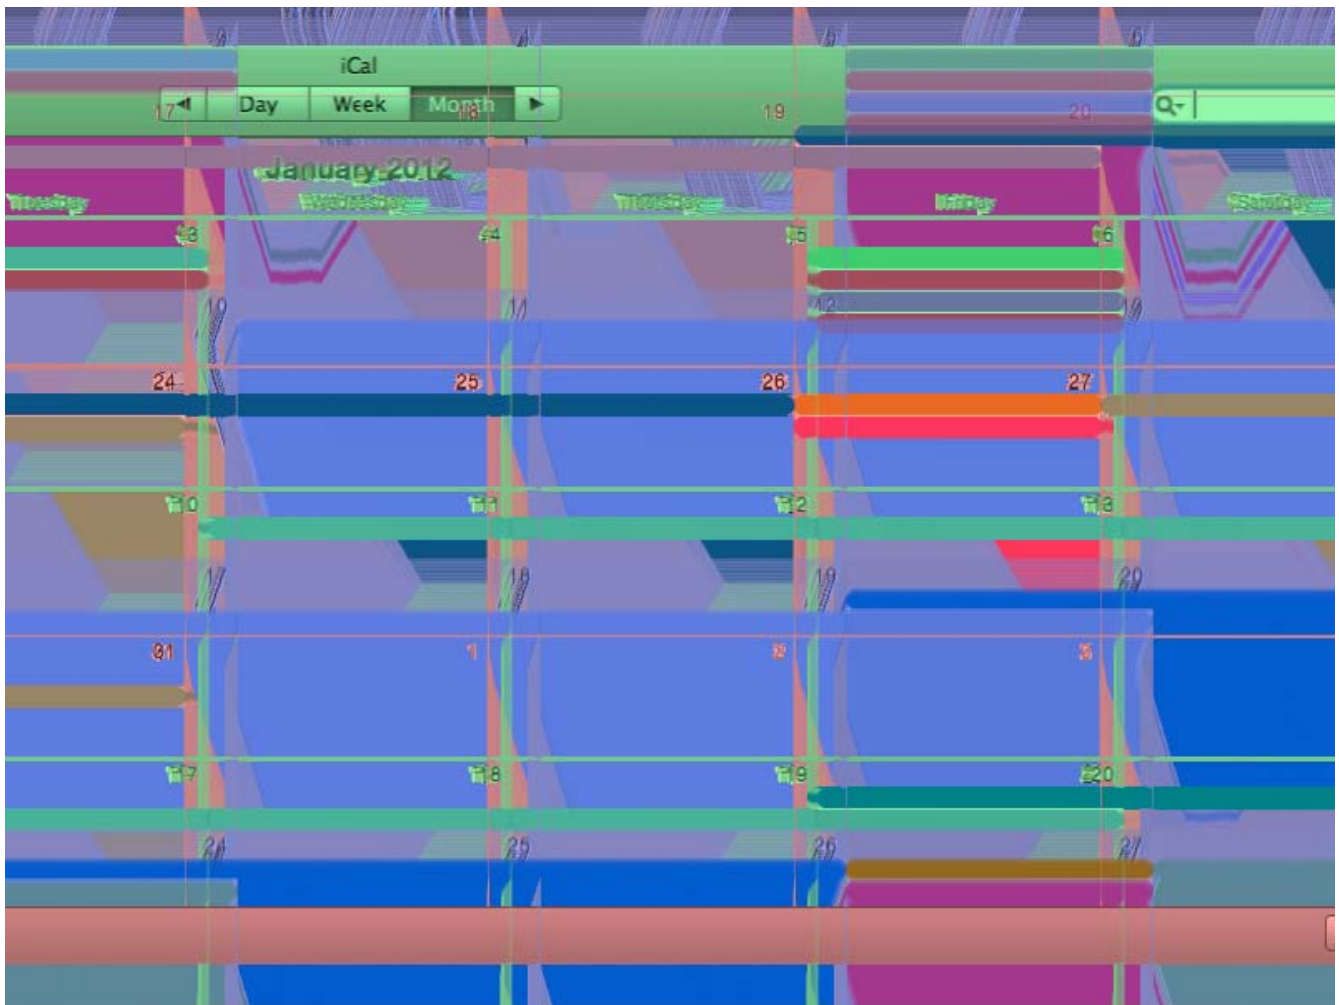

Wayningly wanton, I barrel down this road like a sack of potatoes. What is the barrel without the laughs?? A gargle of gaffes!! However, though feeling the desecration of last nights fight with my wife I'd be blessing the ground around me for letting me stay after what I had to say to her. If she had her way I'd be calling the bench in Regent's Park my home. At least the doghouse has its creature comforts; a valuable lesson that paid its toll by emptying out my wallet on the flowers I never bought when I ended up at Esmerelda's house for boys who want one! Doggone gosh darn' it!! Jesus H Murphy!! Now that I'm bound for eternal damnation and I smell like a smokey bar combined with cheap French perfume as I sit in front of my laptop and make no excuses for myself but to say that I have to lay to rest last nights debauchery with a bourbon and a bottle of Tylenol as I stumbled through this review. Vodka and Ayahuasca by Gangrene has somewhat elevated the mood. It appears by the reaction of my brain swimming in an osmotic pool of drink that the elasticity of my noggin has been suffocated. The sweet sound of hip hop extravaganza makes me feel like the day just might be bearable after all. These diabolical genius have more flow than Fabio's hair on the back of horse cantering away into the distance. I can just picture those scintillating muscles tighten and flex as the flowing locks flutter to the sky as the horse builds to a crescendo. Hold on! I'll be right back after I finish being sick.... Ahh! I feel better already thought these guys flex their vernacular venerability and spit pure incantations that will have you more illuminated than the last time Judge Judy sentenced that ho in the flamingly flagrant bout with white trash abound!! People will be people and these masters of the mic will harness the most tantalizing torque that has been founded on the continent till Vin Diesel popped the hood on his Hyundai. This guys will have their way with you in the sense of what being the common denominator as being whiter and more caucasian than croquet you'll be wanting to get a restraining order on the bottle as these guys will be drinking you under the table. Hold on tight, grab your gat and bust a move on that scene like these bad boys Gangrene!!
